He is said to be a fluent speaker, is well versed in the tenets and history of Christian Science and will undoubtedly give a clear exposition of its work and principles. The lecture which is free will be given under the auspices of the Salem church. The public is cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Asahel Bush were hosts at a party dancing party last Saturday night at the Moose hall. An exceedingly beautiful decorative effect was secured, by hangings of Oregon grape and asparagus fern, relieved by plumes of pampas grass. The punch bowl was effectively placed beneath overhanging sprays of dogwood berries and autumn foliage. About thirty couples attended the affair.

A number of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Gardner on Maple street last evening to witness an uncommon sight, the blossoming of a Night Blooming Cereus. The flower began to open about eight o'clock and continued to unfold until midnight. When fully revealed, the bloom is a beautiful thing, being a deep, pure white in color and about 8 1/2 inches in circumference and exceedingly fragrant. Like Cinderella, at the first break of dawn, it disappears entirely, closing up into a Sphinx-like bud. During the evening, a buffet luncheon was served. Those who enjoyed this unique spectacle were: Mr. and Mrs. George Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Barnard, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gardner, Mrs. H. E. Hoxie, Mrs. McClaren, Mrs. Showerman, Mrs. Alderman, Misses Ella Powell and Sarah Alderman, Master Chas. Gardner and Mr. Will Gardner.

Mrs. Alice Weister, of Portland, who had charge of the art department at the state fair, is in Salem to attend the State Federation. Mrs. Weister is the guest of Mrs. Russell Catlin during her stay in Salem.

Mrs. Merlin Harding has as her house guest this week, Mrs. Lee Moorehouse, of Pendleton, the first vice-president of the State Federation of Woman's clubs.

Mr. and Mrs. Montross M. Ringler, whose recent demonstration of the late dances, at the fete given by the Episcopal Guild, will appear in a Dance Recital to be given tomorrow evening at the Moose hall. Professor and Mrs. Ringler will demonstrate and give a brief instruction in the new standard dances of the season, among which will be the 1915 One Step, Poinsetta Gigue, National Fox Trot, the Ringler Schottische and several other combinations of the various fancy steps. Following the general instruction, the evening will be devoted to social dancing. Owing to the great popularity of these recognized artists in their line, arrangements have been made for a course of dancing lessons to be given by Professor Ringler every Thursday evening at the Moose Hall. The patroness for the recital tomorrow night are Mrs. A. N. Bush, Mrs. William C. Knighton, Mrs. H. B. Thielsen, Mrs. Chanucey Bishop, Mrs. Asahel Bush, Mrs. R. E. L. Steiner, Mrs. Joan J. Roberts, Mrs. Thomas Kay, Mrs. Melvin Plimpton and Mrs. U. G. Shipley.

Mrs. Mark Montgomery, of Junction City, has been visiting in Salem the past few days at the home of Mrs. F. P. Talkington on North Church street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McElroy and son, and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brophy spent the week end in Corvallis as the guests of Judge and Mrs. J. C. McFadden. They attended the college dance in that city.

Mrs. John Borris and daughter, Miss Lois Borris, have left for California, where they will attend both expositions and later spend several months visiting friends and relatives in Los Angeles. Miss Alberta Borris accompanied Mrs. Borris to Portland, where she will remain for several weeks as the guest of friends.

A pleasant surprise party was given at the home of Dr. and Mrs. O. L. Scott, Monday evening in honor of the latter's birthday. One of the surprise features was a large birthday cake, centering the table, around which were placed 24 burning candles and a large number of very beautiful presents, among which was a diamond ring set on the top of the cake. The evening was spent in playing various games, after which a dainty luncheon was served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Meador, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hunter and daughter Mabel, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Perry and daughter Velma, Mrs. J. M. Bowen, Mrs. W. Furry and daughter Aneita, Mrs. Wm. Bennett, Mrs. H. N. Eley, Miss Viola Myatt, Miss Opal Bowen and Mr. S. V. Meador. At a late hour the merry makers went to their various homes after wishing Mrs. Scott many more such happy events.

The Ladies Aid society of Hayesville, will give a box supper at the Hayesville school house Friday, October 29. The proceeds are to be used by the society for the finishing and furnishing of the new addition now being built on the church. The boxes are to be sold by the following novel plan: Each lady bringing a box is to make a necktie and a bow to match. The lady is to wear the bow and place the necktie in an envelope. Partners will be found by matching neckties and the bows. A bazaar will be held in connection with the supper. A short program will be rendered and other amusements provided suggestive of Hollywood. A early booth and a coffee booth are among the things provided for the enjoyment of those attending.

YOUR BRONCHIAL TUBES

When a cold settles in the bronchial tubes, with that weakening, tickling cough, immediate treatment is very important. The breath seems shorter because of mucous obstructions; usually fever is present, your head jars with every cough and your chest may ache. This is no time for experimenting or delay—you must get Scott's Emulsion at once to drive out the cold which started the trouble, and it will check the cough by aiding the healing process of the enfeebled membranes.

If you have any symptoms of bronchitis, or even a stubborn cold, always remember that Scott's Emulsion has been relieving this trouble for forty years. It is free from alcohol or drugs. Refuse substitutes.

Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J. 15-15

Miss Lucile Barton was most favorably received this afternoon at the Federation meeting when she sang "Tis Night," by Rotoli. She was accompanied on the piano by Miss Field and on the violin by Miss Joy Turner. Miss Barton, who has recently opened a studio in Salem, has already won a prominent place in musical circles for her art and is in frequent demand for concert and recital engagements. Her work is marked by a keen sympathetic interpretation. Miss Barton was a member of the state fair ladies' glee.

Mrs. James Coirnoek entertained the Friday Afternoon Thimble club at a pretty Kensington at her home on Perry street Friday afternoon. Marigolds and pampas grass formed most attractive decorations for the occasion. Mrs. John Graber assisted the hostess in serving. Those present were: Mrs. Paul Hauser, Mrs. Lloyd Hauser, Mrs. A. S. Hussey, Mrs. C. Hunter, Mrs. Lloyd Stuffer, Mrs. A. A. Graber, Mrs. John Graber.

Mrs. Baldwin Doolittle, of Portland, gave an instructive and comprehensive paper this afternoon at the art conference of the State Federation on "Interior Decoration of the Home." There are very few as well qualified to talk upon this subject as Mrs. Doolittle and she brought it home to her listeners by treating it in personal aspect, that is, the influence of form and color in the home on the persons comprising it. "There is the same discord in color or that there is in music," said Mrs.

Fay Must Be Indicted Before Matter Can Be Taken Up With Germany

New York, Oct. 27.—Max Breitung, nephew of Millionaire E. N. Breitung, appeared here today at the federal building where he was given preliminary hearing on a charge of participation in the alleged German conspiracy to blow up munitions ships. He was held in $25,000 bail for his appearance November 4. Bail was furnished by a surety company. John B. Stanchfield represented him. Assistant District Attorney Knox was assigned to conduct the federal grand jury investigation.

THE CASE IS COMPLETE
New York, Oct. 27.—With the arrival today of Max Breitung, relative of the wealthy E. N. Breitung, to surrender in the gigantic German bomb conspiracy, secret service men said their case there is complete. Nevertheless they continued to investigate reports that enormous sums had been provided for the conspirators to purchase explosives, hire automobiles and motor boats. The four prisoners already in custody were held incommunicado in the Tombs prison following preliminary court action by the federal officials. Authorities were inclined to doubt the truth of Robert Fay's story that the plot included a plan to bribe Russian commanders to turn their copper cargoes into German ports, where they would receive a big price for them.

MUST INDICT FAY FIRST
Washington, Oct. 27.—Grand jury criminal proceedings against Robert Fay and his alleged co-conspirators in the German bomb plot must be had in New York before any international developments occur, state department officials explained today. For the present, Attorney General Gregory is investigating and he will report later to the state department the basis for representations to Germany if such are necessary.

President Wilson personally is showing much interest in the plots to cripple American munitions output. It is understood President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor, has promised to furnish him and the attorney general with further information concerning these plots. Meantime Gompers is withholding his facts from the public, saying publication would defeat the end sought.

Doolittle, "and it has the same disturbing effect." Mrs. Doolittle will leave in a short time for the Orient and while there will study the Eastern Art with reference to its assimilation with Western decoration. ORATOR WHEELWRIGHT "SPILLED THE BEANS" Expected to Indorse "Preparedness," He Instead Gave It a Hard Roast

Portland, Ore., Oct. 27.—The manner in which William D. Wheelwright, prominent business man and orator par excellence, "spilled the beans" at the Security League banquet last night by advocating international disarmament when the function was arranged to call attention to the nation's lamentable unpreparedness for war, was the talk of the town today. Wheelwright eloquently opposed the preparedness program of the administration because "it is unwise and immoral to get the people to prepare for war as the only way of preventing it when the theory had been so absolutely disproved by events in Europe."

When Wheelwright had concluded his address, Chairman Edward Cookingham good naturedly remarked that it would never have been delivered had an advance copy of it been submitted to him. However, the advocates of preparedness had it their way. Dr. James B. Bullitt, field secretary of the Navy League, declared that everything within reason should be done to insure and organize national safety. After characterizing the song "I Didn't Raise My Boy to Be a Soldier," as despicable, Governor Withycombe said that preparedness was the nation's guarantee for a continuance of peace. One hundred prominent business and professional men attended the banquet.

A man should practice economy on every item that he can, for there will be enough where his strength of resolution will fail.

The "Know How" of Cookery is the result of long experience and study. For years, expert cooks have been converting the inner meats of choice Indian Corn into delicious, golden-brown crisps—POST TOASTIES.

A constant endeavor to make Toasties better has produced the

which have a NEW flavour and form—a true corn flavour and tender crispness unknown to "corn flakes" of the past.

The new process raises tiny pearl-like "puffs" on each flake—a distinguishing feature; also imparts substantial form—the NEW Toasties don't mush down when cream or milk is added.

They come factory-fresh in wax-sealed packages—as crisp and appetizing as when they leave the ovens—and that's mighty good!
